Dr. Brandrenty:—Dran Sin—I have long wanted to write by you and express my gratifuled for the beneficial effects hat have been experienced in my own family, and in hundred, say, thousands of others, by the use of Brandreth's Fills. The first year my lamented friend Brockway sold your pils in Boston (1895) I called at his office. I was then in a declining state of health, and my friends, as well as myself, supposed my earthly voyage would soon terminate. If, throckway urged me to take the Brandreth Phils, but having used so much medicine with no good effect, I was more inclined to let nature take its course, and calmly submit to my fate. If, R. offered to give me one dozen boxes he is would try them as prescribed. By this I saw he had great faith in them, and I finally consented to take them, but not as a gift. I went home and went at R, almost hope. It would try them as prescribed. By this I saw he had great faith in them, and I finally consented to take them, but not as a gift.
